Lyrics by Tyler Johnson, Jared Rodehorst, and Tracy Lovett

Verse 1

G                    C                                    G                                    D
Sylvia McBye set out to fly with big dreams to touch the sky.
                                 G                                    C                                    G                    D                    G
She built a set of wings out of paper and string, And set off to give them a try.

Verse 2

She ran to the edge of dead man's drop. She put on the breaks and screeched to a stop.
Held out her arms and shouted with glee 3,2,3,2,1

Chorus

C D    C                    D
Fly high, Fly so very high
C                    D                                    G
Spread your wings Sylvia McBye

Verse 3

Sylvia herd Paxton's voice He pulled her aside with a better choice.
Took her wings made of paper and string and showed her a new way to fly (3,2,1!)

Chorus X2
